Welcome to the new-style bulletin which now comes in magazine form and contains all the information anyone interested in collecting Jersey Post stamps could ever want to know!

Not only is it packed with details of all the stamp issues from the past 12 months - and complementary philatelic products - it also provides a tantalising preview of what to expect early next year so you don't risk missing out on any of your favourite issues. Please do keep in touch with us and let us know what you would like to collect - we can then do our best to help make sure your collection is always up to date.

On the subject of communication, we would like to thank everyone who took the time to complete our recent customer survey; your comments have been really helpful. As well as helping us to give a new look to this bulletin, they have also helped us to simplify the ordering process. If you'd like to place your order using an order form, we've made that much easier to do. The new stock list and order form can be found in the centre of the bulletin.

Lastly, if you are not already a standing order customer, why not sign up? Not only will you benefit from free post and packing, you can rest assured that your collection always stays up to date.

We hope you enjoy looking through the bulletin and collecting more of the beautiful stamps we have to offer.

Yours,
The Philatelic Team

Christmas Tree Decorations

Issue date 08.11.11

Christmas comes early with six picture-book pretty stamps featuring decorations decking the boughs of a traditional spruce tree.

Applying the usual attention to detail in her 16th commission for Jersey Post, artist Colleen Corlett has captured sparkling reflections as the glow from Christmas lights dances across the glass baubles, golden bells and chains. Heart-warming nativity scenes, a jolly rotund Santa and angels add up to the perfect gift for collectors.

Set of six stamps

The delightful stamps on a festive theme of Christmas tree decorations feature the range of domestic and international tariffs for posting cards. £3.43

Sheets of ten Presented as a sheet of ten stamps, with one of each value in the set, for those who collect complete sheets in mint condition. £34.30 for the complete set

First Day Cover These highly collectable envelopes are a popular feature of every stamp issue as they feature the complete set and are cancelled with a First Day of Issue datestamp. £4.48

Presentation Pack Beautifully illustrated and informative Presentation Packs, specifically designed to complement an issue by telling the story behind the stamps. £4.48

Music Jersey

Symphony Orchestra

These six harmonious stamps will delight music lovers everywhere, as we celebrate the 25th anniversary of the Jersey Symphony Orchestra. Evergreen classics such as Elgar's Pomp and Circumstance and Dvorak's Slavonic Dances sound out from the sheet music on each stamp as a pictorial counterpoint for an ensemble of instruments.

A superb philatelic tribute marking the Orchestra's dedication to the promotion of music.

First Day Cover

These highly collectable envelopes are a popular feature of every stamp issue, as they feature the complete set and are cancelled with a First Day of Issue datestamp. £4.80

Presentation Pack

A beautifully illustrated and informative Presentation Pack, specifically designed to complement this issue by telling the story behind the stamps. £4.80

Set of six stamps Beautifully composed by artist Nick Shrewring this musical issue features a violin, trumpet, harp, timpani, bassoon and French horn. £3.75

Sheets of ten Presented as a sheet of ten stamps, with one of each value in the set, for those who collect complete sheets in mint condition. £37.50 for the complete set

Jersey

Architecture Mills

Another highly collectable series, 'Mills' provides an unusual insight into the architectural heritage of this famous Channel Island.

The stamps feature a selection of the 72 wind and water mills that were a familiar sight across the Island at various stages between the Norman Conquest and the Victorian era.

This first issue in the series 'Architecture' was painted by Nick Shewring and our researchers were assisted by local expert and historian Chris Aubin.

Set of six stamps Mills captures Jersey's unique traditions and history in six stamps, each of which comprises a snapshot of the Island's stunning landscape. £3.16

See page 26 for details of our albums and binders.
If you're looking for a smart way to store your mint stamps our Davo and Lindner albums are the perfect solution.

Sheets of ten Each sheet contains ten stamps, with one of each value in the set, for those who collect complete sheets in mint condition. £31.60 for the complete set

First Day Cover

These highly collectable envelopes are a popular feature of every stamp issue, as they feature the complete set and are cancelled with a First Day of Issue datestamp. £4.21

Presentation Pack

A beautifully illustrated and informative Presentation Pack, containing Chris Aubin's expert research into the history of milling in Jersey. £4.21

You only pay for the stamps.
The book is free!

Yearbook 2011

This fabulous detailed record of all the stamps issued by Jersey Post in 2011 is the ultimate gift for all stamp collectors.

Now produced in hard back, the Yearbook contains a mint set of all stamp products and is packed with background information and interesting facts about the stamps, Jersey Post and its Island home, including full-colour illustrations.

It also comes with protective stamp mounts. £58.88

The Queen's Diamond Jubilee Accession

On 6 February 2012, we'll mark the occasion of 60 years since the accession with a superb miniature sheet. This miniature sheet with a very special 'wow factor' will show Her Majesty face-to-face with her beloved father King George VI. Advance ordering is advisable.

We'll send all our collectors a special order form early in the new year with further details of this historic stamp issue and additional products.

Europa Visit Jersey

We were again delighted to join our fellow members in PostEurop in issuing stamps with a common theme - especially when it presents the opportunity to promote the Island as a holiday destination.

The four beautiful stamps appeal to foodies, outdoors types, countryside lovers and anyone interested in history.

If you are not already a Standing Order customer, you will be able to order these issues in our Winter 2012 Bulletin.

Aviation

The 11th issue in our popular Aviation History series celebrates the 75th anniversary of Jersey Airport. The designs are the work of Tony Theobald who specialises in aviation stamps.

His first Jersey stamp commission dates back to 1975 with an issue to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Royal Air Forces Association.

Commemorative Prestige Booklet 2012

Jersey Post only issues one Commemorative Prestige Booklet each year and this is it!

The 2012 'must-have' for collectors contains panes of stamps from this Aviation issue and includes additional artwork by Tony Theobald as well as a complete history of Jersey Airport.

Issue date: 28.09.2011

Scenery III SEPAC

Joint Stamp Issue

Our contribution to the Small European Postal Administrations' Cooperation Joint Stamp Issue features the Island's landscapes and landmarks. One of the six stamps depicting the beautiful corners of the Island carries the SEPAC logo. The stamps were created by Andrew Robinson using photographs from Jersey Post's extensive collection.

Set of six stamps Jersey's stunning scenes feature in this popular issue. £3.70

Presentation Pack A beautifully illustrated and informative Presentation Pack, specifically designed to complement this issue by telling the story behind the stamps. £4.75

First Day Cover The complete issue cancelled with a First Day of Issue datestamp. £4.75

LAST IN THE SERIES

SEPAC Joint Stamp Issue Folder

A 'must-have' for collectors, the folder is packed with all the stamps from the 12 participating SEPAC members. As an added incentive, each folder comes with a gift coupon from each of the participating European Postal Administrations to receive additional information and complimentary gifts. £14.68

Ask us about the first two folders in the series so you can own the complete set.

Jersey's Finance Industry

Issue date: 12.09.2011

We were delighted to issue a commemorative £3 stamp to mark the 50th anniversary of the Island's financial services industry.

Miniature Sheet The stamp is set in a miniature sheet with generous selvedge featuring the principal tool of the finance trade - money - and Island emblems such as the Jersey Lily and States of Jersey crest. A special gravure printing effect and silver simili embossing give the miniature sheet the appearance of a bank note. £3.00

First Day Cover This highly collectable envelope perfectly shows off the stamp as a miniature work of art. It is cancelled with a First Day of Issue datestamp. £4.05

Presentation Pack Designed especially to complement this very limited edition, the pack tells the story of Jersey's finance heritage. £4.05

Archaeology II

Buried Treasure

Issue date: 30.08.2011

Jersey has a wealth of archaeology dating back to prehistoric times. One of the most significant finds, Le Câtillon Hoard, was unearthed by a farmer on his land in 1957.

The priceless hoard comprises 2,500 Celtic coins representing tribes in Armorica, Gaul as well as Southern Britain.

Set of Six Stamps Each stamp depicts the obverse and reverse of coins forming part of Le Câtillon Hoard. £3.74

First Day Cover These highly collectable envelopes are a popular feature of every stamp issue as they feature the complete set and are cancelled with a First Day of Issue datestamp. £4.79

Presentation Pack A beautifully illustrated and informative Presentation Pack, specifically designed to complement an issue by telling the fascinating story behind these stamps. £4.79

Sheets of ten Each sheet contains ten stamps, with one of each value in the set for those who collect complete sheets in mint condition. £37.40 for the complete set

Issue date: 03.08.2011

Conservation

75th Anniversary of the National Trust for Jersey

The National Trust for Jersey was founded in 1936 to protect and safeguard historic buildings and sites as well as the environment. Today the charity is the largest private landowner in the Island caring for over 160 sites.

These delightful stamps feature wildlife in local scenes to celebrate the Trust's outstanding achievements in conservation.

First Day Covers The collectability factor of the envelope showing just the 75p stamp (£1.80) is enhanced by the unusual colour of the historic building depicted. Known affectionately to locals as the 'White House,' it was painted green in 2011 to highlight environmental issues. The second cover features the other five stamps. £3.99

Presentation Pack Tells the story behind the stamps and the National Trust for Jersey. £3.99

Jersey Shipwrecks

Showing in fabulous detail some of the vessels that met with disaster in the seas surrounding Jersey, these stamps are packed to the edge with exciting stories and maritime history. They were painted by Tony Theobald, a favourite with stamp collectors worldwide because of his expertise in designing stamps on machine-based and military themes.

Set of six stamps The stamps depict six vessels in their full glory at sea prior to meeting their fate in the dangerous waters around Jersey. £3.74

Miniature Sheet Featuring the £3 stamp showing TSS Roebuck attracting hundreds of sightseers when it beached high and dry in St Brelade's Bay in 1911. £3.00

Commemorative Prestige Booklet 2011 An informative lesson in Jersey history to bring to life the tales of these ships, the fate that befell them, and those who sailed in them. £14.22

Sheets of ten This issue is enhanced by the selvedge on each sheet which depicts the buoys anchored above shipwrecks to warn sailors of danger below. £37.40 for the complete set

First Day Covers These highly collectable envelopes feature the set of six stamps and miniature sheet, both cancelled with a First Day of Issue datestamp. See stock list for prices

Presentation Pack An informative complement to this issue that tells the story behind the stamps and miniature sheet. See stock list for prices

Birdlife V Summer Visiting Birds

Issue date: 16.06.2011

A perfect example of the high standards which collectors across the world have come to expect from Jersey Post, and the brush of well-known local artist Nick Parlett. Previous issues of this sought-after series have featured migrating, garden, threatened and woodland birds, and all reflect Nick's passion for the natural world.

Collect the series!

Set of six stamps This charming issue features some of the birds that make the annual summer migration to Jersey. £3.80

Souvenir Miniature Sheet A painting in itself, this miniature sheet is a delight for collectors of this very special and popular series, and for 'twitchers' everywhere. £2.29

Souvenir Sheetlet Featuring one of each stamp contained in a beautifully designed selvedge, also designed by Nick Parlett. £3.80

Sheets of ten Presented as a sheet of ten stamps, with one of each value in the set for those who collect complete sheets in mint condition. £38.00 for the complete set

First Day Covers These highly collectable envelopes are a popular feature of every stamp issue, and are cancelled with a First Day of Issue datestamp. See stock list for prices

Presentation Packs Three informative Presentation Packs, specifically designed to complement the issue by telling the story behind the stamps. See stock list for prices

Jersey Orchids VII

The seventh issue in the series featuring the outstanding work of the world-famous Eric Young Orchid Foundation shows why Jersey stamps are so sought after.

The captivating members of the 'Royal Family of Plants' - one of the largest groups of flowering plants - are ideal subjects for stamps and hugely popular with collectors.

Set of six stamps This charming issue showcases some of the award-winning foundation's own hybrids. £3.16

Miniature Sheet An explosion of vibrant colours formed by the display entered by the Eric Young Orchid Foundation at the 2009 RHS Chelsea Flower Show which provides an amazing backdrop for the £3 stamp.

Sheets of ten Each sheet contains ten stamps, with one of each value in the set for those who collect complete issues in mint condition. £31.60 for the complete set

First Day Covers These highly collectable envelopes are a popular feature of every stamp issue and are cancelled with a First Day of Issue datestamp. See stock list for prices

Presentation Packs Informative Presentation Packs, specifically designed to complement the issue by telling the full story behind the stamps. See stock list for prices

Issue date: 17.05.2011

Royal Wedding

HRH Prince William of Wales and Miss Catherine Middleton

We were delighted to join the national celebration of the Royal Wedding by issuing a special commemorative stamp. It shows the happy couple at Clarence House when they announced their engagement to the world.

An absolute must for avid collectors of stamps on a Royal theme.
